ANNOUNCEMENT OF

Several Hundred Graduates

National School of Domestic Arts and Science

"That is 'THE RIGHT SCHOOL FOR GIRLS,'"
Say Our Patrons. Is it the One YOU Have Chosen This Year for Your Daughter?

The Unusual Private School—one that prepares its students to cope with life in all its phases—to successfully preside over a home—executively and socially—ably and economically direct its various departments, intelligently care for the members of the family under all conditions—to capably apply an accurate knowledge of modern business methods in the home and commercial circles, or, should necessity arise, to be self-supporting.

No hours wasted on superfluous subjects, but time pleasantly applied to the acquisition of a practical education, in the inspiring atmosphere of elevating ideals and daily contact with enthusiastic students from prominent cultural homes, the daughters of satisfied patrons.

Our twelfth year opens October 5th, 1915, with increased facilities, enlarged faculty, and heavy enrollment. Prompt registration is necessary for admission, as we yearly have more applicants than we can accept.

Courses of Study:

Two-year course in Domestic Art or Science.

Two-year Normal Courses.

One-year post-graduate course.

Special departments of Language and Music.

One-year course of Household Economics. Three months syllabus for young housekeepers.
